ONTARIO COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE CELEBRATES COUNTY WINS AT ELECTION WATCH PARTY

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y. (November 5, 2026) – The Ontario County Republican Committee held an election night watch party to get results for its candidates across the Finger Lakes region in the November 3rd General Election. Voters re-elected David Cirencione for Ontario County Sheriff, Jeff Trickler for Ontario County Treasurer, and Coroners Terri Haskins and Scott Avedisian. Republican Supervisors elected include: Bristol Town Supervisor Laura Abplanalp, Hopewell Town Supervisor William Namestnik, Manchester Town Supervisor Tate Colburn, Gorham Town Supervisor Dale Stell and Richmond Town Supervisor Mike Baker.

Republican candidates also won town justice and other local races across the county including Christy Mulherin for West Bloomfield Town Board.

Federal and State Candidates that were successful include:

- Congresswoman Claudia Tenney
- State Senator Pam Helming
- Assemblywoman Andrea Bailey
- Mark Benjamin for Assembly

> "On behalf of the Ontario County Republican Committee, I want to thank every candidate who stepped forward to run," said Ontario County Republican Chair Trisha Turner. "Our elected officials have represented their constituents with dedication and excellence, and these results show that voters notice. While some races did not go the way we hoped, we are proud of every single candidate. Putting your name on the ballot takes courage and real commitment to your community. Your efforts make us stronger. Thank you to all volunteers and supporters for your help to continue our strong presence and leadership in Ontario County."
